

Exercise 6.7. How to respond an abusive situation.

Educator exposes the following situations and asks the AAWID to express how they would respond to them, starting immediately after a debate.

1. A residence care-giver is pulling your arm to make you walk faster.
2. Your care-giver is shouting at you to rush you.
3. You believe your legal tutor is spending your money without your permission.
4. A care-giver is touching you in a way you do not like it.
5. The professionals of your centre do not respect your will to keep living in your home.

Note: It is important to work in this exercise as much the assertive aspects as to provide material and human resources to be useful to stand or to report abusive conducts.
