

Unit 11: Learning about your rights

Exercise 1: What are my rights?

Activity 2: What do my rights guarantee to me?<sup>1</sup>

This activity helps AAWID to relate the various civil rights to the specific social benefits they provide to people with disabilities.

Steps:

1. The educator should use the cards from the previous activity and
2. to print and cut the additional colour notes, placed in the activity's template, which list various benefits that the respective rights guarantee to a person with disabilities.
3. The educator arranges the cards in a row and asks AAWID to match the different benefits to the specific right

Medicines	Employment contract
Hospital stay	Employment promotion programs
Examination by a doctor	Support for finding a job
Affordable price of the mobility means	The right to choose where and with whom to live
Free parking	Access to home-based services
Mobility aids and assistants	Access to community-based services

<sup>1</sup> This exercise should be adjusted in a way that reflects the national reality of the specific country.
